The readings today challenge us to adjust our lives to the living presence of the risen Lord. They also remind us that the purpose of the suffering, death, and Resurrection of Jesus was to save us from our sins. In our life's journey we are confronted with several problems and difficulties. In such situations we need positive support from others who understands us which can take back us on the right path. After His resurrection, we see Jesus as a consoler helping the disciples to overcome their fear. Several occasions He comes to them and remains with them, guides them and eats with them.

In the first reading we have the address of Peter which is taken from the earlier part of the second of five discourses preached by Peter. This address follows immediately after the miracle of healing the crippled man by Peter and John. Peter explained to those present that the apostles were not the source of healing but Jesus who was with them and whom they had killed. Peter speaks of how the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob sent His Son Jesus as the Messiah to save the world and of how His chosen people rejected their Messiah. Peter also reports how Jesus was raised from the dead and fulfilled all the Messianic prophecies.

In the second reading John the Apostle addresses to the early Christian community beset with many problems. Some members were advocating false doctrines and refused to acknowledge that Jesus is the Christ. They had refused to accept Faith in Christ as the source of sanctification. John in his letter provides an explanation, calling Jesus as the expiation for our sins. He encourages his disciples not to sin. John uses the affectionate term, my dear children to show how concerned he is about his church. He also tells them that we can be sure that we know God only by keeping his commandments.

The Gospel describes Jesus' appearance on the evening of His Resurrection to his apostles in the Upper Room. Jesus removes the doubts of his apostles about his Resurrection by inviting them to touch him and by eating a piece of broiled fish. Then He opened the minds of the apostles to the scriptures written about him and commissioned them to be witnesses of him. Christ is risen from the dead and is with us now. Let us turn to Him when we are afraid and when we stumble in our faith.

Fr. Mathew Kunnel, CMI
Pastor

Grocery Card Fundraiser

Thank you to all who are committed to and support our Gift Card endeavor. The parish makes a certain percentage of every card sold. The results of these sales is significant. If every parishioner that eats or drives a car purchased cards before shopping we could easily make our mortgage payment every month. This is a very easy way to donate an extra amount to the church without money ever coming out of your pocket.

Please review the cards available and support our endeavor.

Cards are also available daily at the church office during regular office hours. We accept Visa, MasterCard, Debit, Cash and Cheques.

Please consider buying Co-op cards to purchase your gas or to pay your account. Cards do not cost the consumer any extra money but the Church receives a 10% commission of your total sales. This a considerable amount of money for the Church.
